Shays to Hold June 15 Hearing on Iraqi Perceptions of U.S. Actions; Iraq Diplomatic Representative to Testify

(Washington, DC) -- Congressman Christopher Shays (R-CT), Chairman of the Subcommittee on National Security, Emerging Threats, and International Relations, will convene an oversight hearing June 15 to examine challenges confronted in U.S. efforts to communicate effectively with the Iraqi people.

The hearing will be Tuesday, June 15, 2 p.m. in room 2247 of the Rayburn House Office Building in Washington, D.C.

The United States and its Coalition partners are attempting to win the hearts and minds of the people in Iraq while providing military security and support to economic and political reform programs. But some assumptions made about Iraq proved faulty, and some policy decisions were controversial and created more doubt than confidence in U.S. capabilities and intentions.

On February 10, 2004, the subcommittee held a hearing entitled, Public Diplomacy in the Middle East to examine regional efforts to convey U.S. policies and values to diverse audiences. This hearing will build on that discussion to focus on the assumptions and policy decisions made over the past year in Iraq. Witnesses will also describe corrective actions that might be undertaken to regain the confidence and cooperation (hearts and minds) of the Iraqi people, improve public diplomacy messages, and help chart the course for future efforts in Iraq.
